

First Plymouth Youth News

APRIL 2011

Looking forward:

How we do this....

I get a lot of comments from church members, saying that they're proud of our youth and how the youth program is going. I thought it would be worth making note of all the different people whose effort goes into it:

- The youth who show up each week.
- The parents who make it a point to get their kids here.
- The parents who prepare meals for the youth, some of whom prepare more than their fair share.
- Nanette Harland, who coordinates the meal schedule and convinces folks to sign up.
- The parents who always come through for driving when we need them to get somewhere.
- Folks who make donations to the youth fund, to ensure that we have the funds to do our work.
- The youth mentors who come occasionally or every single week.
- Frank, who runs the youth choir.
- The church and outside groups who help provide programming for youth group.

Without all of these folks and more, we couldn't do what we do. We need the help of every single one of you to make this work, and you always come through!

As this year draws to a close, thanks to all who have made it happen!

See you Sunday,
Eric.

Summer Camp (Various Dates)

The Rocky Mountain Conference holds camps for youth across various weeks each summer. Voyager Camp is for youth entering grades 7 and 8, and is held July 31 - August 6. MADD Camp is for youth entering grades 9-12, and is held July 10-16. The fee for both is $455.

Registration information is available at the conference website (<http://www.rmcc.org/camps/campshome.htm>) or from Eric. Scholarships are available from both the conference and First Plymouth on a need basis. Don't let cost be an obstacle!

Billy Jonas Concert! (May 1)

Billy Jonas is a singer-songwriter, children's musician, environmental activist, and youth group favorite for his song "God Is In" and his rendition of "Sanctuary," both of which we've used on mission trips and at youth group.

Billy will be at First Plymouth on May 1st! That morning, he'll be performing for the entire church, following the 10 a.m. worship service. That evening, he will lead us in a workshop for the youth group, helping us learn to make music and care about our world. YOU DO NOT WANT TO MISS THIS. Mark it down.

Brian is still sleeping.

Frequently Asked Questions

Five questions about youth group logistics:

What time is youth group?

We usually start at 6:15, and finish at 8:30. Some special events may require different times, which will be announced ahead of time, over email.

Who is youth group for?

All youth grades 6-12 are invited, whether they and/or their families are members of First Plymouth or not.

What do we do there?

We do lots of fun stuff, some serious stuff, some spiritual stuff, and quite a bit of random stuff. We've been known to make giant messes, spend time praying, roll up our sleeves and work, and accidentally fall asleep while pretending to listen.

What does it cost?

Our goal is always to make youth group free. Occasionally, because of special events or budget limitations, we have to ask participants to bring $5 or $10. This is always optional, however, and if you don't have it, we'll cover you.

Is it true that Eric is good at foosball?

I'm in my fourth year and have been beaten 3 or 4 times. So if you want to be a hero, bring it.

Bonus Trivia:

We're still thinking about a camping trip. Who's in?

More FAQ:

Here are some more frequently asked questions about youth group:

What if I like to sing?

Then Youth Choir is for you! Youth Choir meets Sunday evenings just before youth group, from 5:00 to 6:00, in the Odeon. You need not be an awesome singer to join.

How much do youth mentors get paid? Nada. They're here because they like hanging out with you. Seriously.

Why should I participate in conference retreats?

Once upon a time, First Plymouth sent huge groups to these things. These days, it's more like one or two people. We can do better than that! You should go because they're a lot of fun...it's a weekend in the woods with people from all over the conference, having fun, sharing, learning some things, and eating camp food. If you want more information, ask!

I like to hang out and do cool stuff and do good things for the world, but I don't know how I feel about God/Jesus/spirituality/whatever. That's not a question either. But don't sweat it. Youth Group is open to anyone and everyone, regardless of where you might be on your journey.

Did you know?

These icons that keep appearing? I'm starting to take them as a sign. A sign that we need to do a youth group camping trip sometime. Hmmm. Bonus Did you know: Somewhere, Aaron Bugh is nodding vigorously while reading his youth newsletter.

Nicole is still willing to paperhack you.

Rites of Passage (May)

Each spring, as the end of the school year approaches, we recognize several rites of passage in the youth program. This year, the dates for these are:

- 5th Grade Orientation is May 8th. This is a youth group meeting that our rising 6th graders are invited to attend—to help them become acclimated to youth group, and ready to start in earnest in the fall.
- Confirmation Sunday is May 15th. Confirmation is a process undertaken by 8th graders (and sometimes older youth), by which they claim the Christian faith as their own and become full members of the church. This year's class will culminate their Confirmation experience on May 15th, when they will become members of the church.
- Senior Sunday is May 15th as well. This is when we'll recognize the seniors in worship, and as a congregation wish them well on their way.
- The Senior Banquet is also May 15th. This is when, at the normal youth group time, we'll take time to talk about each of our seniors individually and as a group. We'll have good food (provided by the parents of the juniors) and a nice evening of honoring our seniors.
- The final youth group meeting of the year will be on May 22nd. We'll have a big cookout (a group effort by all the parents; stay tuned for details) and a lot of fun.

So be sure to stick it out to the end of May, because if you don't, you'll miss a lot of fun stuff!

Grocery Cards

Don't forget about our King Soopers grocery cards. This is a major source of funding for our activities, and we need your vigilance. Reload those cards!

If you are not a youth parent or grandparent, we could use your help as a youth mentor! Let Eric know if you're interested. All mentors
